

Local peer-to-peer event – YEP Youth e-perspectives on migration | Barcelona | Spain

Who was there?

- Spanish YEP participants (8 participants)
- Esther Subias and Luis Miguel Castillo, participating as moderators (El Teb)
- 30 participants from local community (different NGOs and young people from Raval neighbourhood)

What was the event about?

- Screening of digital stories of Spanish YeP participants
- Screening of a documentary about lifeguards who volunteer to save refugees arriving by sea to a Greek island
- Artistic performance on the refugee crisis

Where did the event take place?

- Espai Xamfrà, Barcelona

When did the event take place?

- 18 November, 2016
- From 18:00 to 22:00

Event programme:

- Film screening (TO KYMA – Rescue at Egeo Sea)
- Screening of digital stories by Spanish YeP participants
- Artistic interpretation of the topic by a young musician
- Open debate

Photos:

Local peer-to-peer event – YEP Youth e-perspectives on migration | Brussels | Belgium

Who was there?

- Belgian YEP participants and co-moderators (8 participants)
- Jasper Pollet, moderator (MAKS vzw) and MAKS staff
- Around 90-100 participants from local community (different NGOs and residents of Cureghem)

What was the event about?

- To show the digital stories the Belgian YeP-ers created
- To discuss with the local community about sensitive issues around the stories
- To present their experience in Zagreb through a photo exhibition

Where did the event take place?

- Youth Center Espace 16 Arts in Anderlecht, address rue Rossini, 16 1070 Anderlecht

When did the event take place?

- 18 November 2016
- From 19:00 to 22:00

Event programme:

- Presentation of the YeP project
- Screening of the digital stories of Belgian YeP-ers, presented by the author of the story. Each story is followed by a question to the audience and an open debate
- Screening of a follow up Skype interview with one of the Croatian participants – a Somali refugee
- Screening of selected stories of the Spanish participants
- Debate
- Reception

Photos:

Local peer-to-peer event – YEP Youth e-perspectives on migration | Zagreb | Croatia

Who was there?

- Croatian YEP participants (7 participants)
- Danijel Borna Fiket, participating as a speaker/ panelist (Telecentar)
- Ana Marija Meniss, speaker/ panelist (Tresnjevka Cultural Centre) and event host
- 20 Members of NGO “Ludruga” 100% people
- 140 participants from local community (different NGOs and residents of Trešnjevka)
- 50 young participants (Institution for Education of Juveniles Zagreb, NGO Djeca prva)

What was the event about?

- Event Tagline: “Breaking the stigma: YEP Youth e-perspectives on migration”
- Memorable information:
 - Using new digital storytelling tools – key for raising public awareness
 - Photography as a tool for expression – valuable method of documentary and recording reality
 - Digital Storytelling - powerful intergenerational collaboration tool

Where did the event take place?

- CeKaTe Prečko, Prečko 2a (Tresnjevka Cultural Centre), Zagreb - Croatia
- CeKaTe Prečko movie theater, Gallery (Cekate - Prečko)

When did the event take place?

- 22 December, 2016
- From 18:00 to 22:00

Event programme:

- Exhibition opening 18:00 – 18:30 (Homo homini remedium - portrait photography exhibition)
- Film screening 18:35 – 19:00 (S druge strane ogledala/On the other side of the mirror)
- Youth e-Perspectives on Migration project presentation 19:00 – 19:45
- Presenting Digital Stories / open discussion 20:00 – 21:00
- Cultural / entertainment program 21:00 – 22:00

